

The Young Student Camp Contract

Out of my respect for Antioch Church, The Young, my youth pastor and my leaders, my fellow students and for Camp, I promise to be held accountable to these following guidelines for camp:

1. I will be ALL IN at camp — I will lean in to worship experiences, I will pay attention during sermons and sessions, I will participate in devotional times as well as cabin times.
2. I will follow instruction without question from all leaders, including The Young leaders, camp staff and workers. I will show utmost respect at all times.
3. I will follow the camp schedule.
4. I will not grumble, complain or whine about anything.
5. I will be friendly and inclusive to everyone in our group.
6. All of my personal boyfriend/girlfriend relationships are on hold for the duration of this camp. There will be no breaking-up, making-up or petty-fighting during camp. I will also not use camp time to flirt or look for attention from guys or girls. My focus will be on God.
7. I will participate in every game that is played during camp (indoor or outdoor) even the ones I think are lame.
8. To help remove any unnecessary distractions I will willingly leave my phone with my leader the entire time we are at camp.
9. I am not too cool for camp.

Students who choose to disregard these guidelines that they have agreed to and signed their name to at camp will be given three strikes.

First strike will be a conversation with the student.

Second strike will be a phone call home to the parent.

Third strike the student will be sent home from camp (parents are required to come and pick student up ASAP).

Please spend a moment together with your student to talk through each point, and then together, please sign below — agreeing to be held accountable to everything listed above.
